CHABAD OF PLACER COUNTY PROGRAM GUIDE

SPRING-SUMMER 5779 / 2019

DEAR FRIEND,

Welcome to Chabad House!

Secular, Unaffiliated, Reform, Religious, Sefardi, Ashkenazi, Liberal, Conservative... at Chabad you will find a great mix of people from so many different backgrounds, who share a Jewish soul.

"Too religious," "I don't read Hebrew," and "I don't want to be judged," are some of the common fears we hear from those who have never come to Chabad. While the stereotype is of intolerant Hassidic Jews, every person who walks through our doors is surprised by how accepted they are and how welcomed they feel.

At Chabad, one's knowledge of Judaism, level of observance or political affiliation are of no bearing, we connect, soul to soul. Celebrating, learning and growing together in a safe, non-judgmental, welcoming and family environment where your personal Jewish discovery experience will be nurtured in a most inspiring way.

Whether you're looking for a synagogue to call home, or a community to call your own, the Chabad House is a family where we grow together.

So please, come by for a visit, try a class or a Holiday event, pop in for a quick schmooze with the Rabbi, or just to check us out. Join the thousands who have become part of the colorful and international Chabad family.

From our NY Deli event to our lecture series, an out-of-the-box Hebrew School for children and many thought provoking classes for adults, we strive to provide food for every hungry soul.

You'll be pleased to have met a vibrant Jewish community and experience the richness, beauty, and joys of Judaism.

We look forward to welcoming you at Chabad House!

Rabbi Yossi & Malkie Korik

A promotional graphic for 'Community Seders'. On the left, there are several round, perforated matzahs stacked on a dark red surface. On the right, a red wine bottle is being poured into a large, elegant wine glass. The background is a light beige color with a subtle texture. The title 'Community Seders' is written in a large, elegant, red cursive font at the top. Below the title, the dates and times for the seders are listed in bold black text: 'FRIDAY, APRIL 19 | 7:00 PM' and 'SHABBAT, APRIL 20 | 9:00 PM'. The main text describes the event as a memorable and uplifting seder experience featuring four courses of gourmet Passover cuisine and hand-made shmurah matza. It also mentions user-friendly Hebrew/English haggadahs with inspirational and thought-provoking insights, supervised children's room, and babysitting available. The space is limited, and RSVP is required by April 10. The event is free of charge and open to the entire Jewish community. Suggested donation is $45 for adults and $30 for children. A sponsor donation of $180 is also mentioned.

A PEEK INTO JEWISH PROPHECY

3 TUESDAYS: MARCH 12, 19, 26

7:00-8:30 PM

In the next series of Bible topics, we will discuss the three pillars of Jewish prophecy, Yehaayahu (Isaiah), Yirmiyahu (Jeremiah) and Yechezkel (Ezekiel). They lived prior and during the first exile where a major transformation took place in the character of the Jewish people. From seemingly an independent nation but suffering from hesitance regarding its relationship with their Go-d and his laws into a galvanized nation that can withstand prolonged exiles and being ready at any moment to assume its independence in its promised homeland with its belief in Go-d embedded in its soul.

We will discuss representative prophecies of each prophet. We will learn about his period background and the relevant political realities. We will also discuss the known biographical information of each prophet.

Presented by David Buki. Cost: $25 entire course.

WOMEN'S BEIT MEDRASH

BACK BY POPULAR DEMAND!

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 6 | THURSDAY, APRIL 4
TUESDAY, MAY 7 | TUESDAY, JUNE 4
7:00 - 8:30 PM

What is Beit Medrash?

Literally "House of Learning", it is the term used to refer to a Jewish study hall. It originates from the Arabic term "Madrasah" which refers to any type of educational institution.

This new monthly Beit Midrash for women will coincide with Rosh Chodesh, (the first of every Jewish month) as it is considered a special holiday specifically for women.

This program will be presented by Rebbetzin Malkie Korik along with Chaya Ossowiecky, Mussya Labkowski, Mushky Belinow and Simi Goldshmid

Cost: $15 per session
