

Chabad of PLACER COUNTY

PROGRAM GUIDE

FALL/WINTER 5780/2019

Dear Friend,

Welcome to Chabad House!

Secular, Unaffiliated, Reform, Religious, Sefardi, Ashkenazi, Liberal, Conservative... at Chabad you will find a great mix of people from so many different backgrounds, who share in common the Jewish soul.

“Too religious,” “I don’t read Hebrew,” and “I don’t want to be judged,” are some of the common fears we hear from those who have never come to Chabad. While the stereotype is of intolerant Hassidic Jews, every person who walks through our doors is surprised by how accepted they are and how welcomed they feel.

At Chabad, one’s knowledge of Judaism, level of observance or political affiliation are of no bearing, we connect, soul to soul. Celebrating, learning and growing together in a safe, non-judgmental, welcoming and family environment where your personal Jewish discovery experience will be nurtured in a most inspiring way.

Whether you’re looking for a synagogue to call home, or a community to call your own, the Chabad House is a family where we grow together.

So please, come by for a visit, try a class or a Holiday event, pop in for a quick schmooze with the Rabbi, or just to check us out. Join the thousands who have become part of the colorful and international Chabad family.

From our NY Deli event to our lecture series, an out-of-the-box Hebrew School for children and many thought provoking classes for adults, we strive to provide food for every hungry soul.

You’ll be pleased to have met a vibrant Jewish community and experience the richness, beauty, and joys of Judaism.

From our family to yours - Shana Tova. May you be “inscribed and sealed in the book of life” for a joyous, healthy, prosperous, peaceful, and sweet new year!

FROM HATRED TO Harmony

The raw telling of one man's descent into America's Nazi underground and his ultimate triumph over hatred and addiction.

Frank Meeink's violent childhood in South Philadelphia primed him to hate. He made easy prey for a small group of skinhead gang recruiters. By sixteen, Frank was one of the most notorious skinhead gang leaders on the East Coast. By eighteen, he was roaming the country as a Neo-Nazi recruiter when he was arrested and convicted of kidnapping. It was while doing hard time in an Illinois prison that Frank's journey of redemption began.

Autographed copies of Meeink's book will be available for sale after the presentation.

Documentary: The Time in Between

In the 1970s, Eliot Lasky was a high flying rock n' roll promoter, traveling the country with famous bands like The Rolling Stones. But a question that cut to the core of his identity led him to a sidewalk in Brooklyn, where in the cold afternoon he waited for the Lubavitcher Rebbe to get out of his car and give him an answer that would change his life.

In this documentary film, Lasky, and others reflect on their coming of age during the turbulent 'counterculture' years and their winding life journeys since, on that time that has passed and the moments that remain.

Join local Jewish women for an intriguing and relevant conversation about topics that matter to you!
